About Timberhead Music

Greetings from the Timberhead Crew,

Welcome to Timberhead Music. We are continuing to expand our catalog to bring you new sounds; from vaudevillian jugband to traditional folk to instrumental music. We hope you will enjoy all of these as much as we do. Our highlighted new artists are The WIYOS. They are a unique group who give old time music a new life in the 21st century. Check our website to hear them.

We have included a SURVEY to hear from you about the music you like to have in your life. This is your opportunity to tell us what you'd like us to know about your preferences. We hope to be your first stop for music so please take a minute to fill out the survey.

Join our e-mail news list, check out our website and e-mail us your questions and comments. We love hearing from you and are always glad to pass your comments on to the artists.

Thanks again for all your support!

The Wiyos

The Wiyos play and compose music inspired by the early American musical idioms of the 1920’s and 30’s. Their music comes from a time before the separation of blues, country, ragtime, gospel, swing and hillbilly. Passionately carrying the rich musical heritage of a sound reminiscent of a by-gone era (when live bands could be heard both on radio and at community halls) - The Wiyos give old sounds new life in the 21st century.

“The Wiyos, a Brooklyn-based trio...drew on Rural Blues, Ragtime, Spirituals and Appalachian Jug-Band music. The group brings exuberance and intensity to these vintage styles and it's performances are layered with vaudevillian stage antics reminiscent of...Uncle Dave Macon” - The New Yorker

Hat Trick
- The Wiyos
CD
Thirteen traditional songs pulled from their live set-list spanning their signature blend of Vaudevillian Ragtime/Jugband Blues & Hillbilly Swing. Cut live in New York on vintage gear- this CD is a treasure. (2006)

Porcupine
- The Wiyos
CD
Porcupine mirrors the spirit of the old-time Medicine Shows of the 1920’s and 30’s when musical traditions mixed liberally between blues, country, ragtime, gospel, swing and hillbilly. This is “fresh” music from a by-gone era. (2003)

Gordon Bok Live
CD
$16.00
This latest release is Gordon Bok’s first LIVE CONCERT CD. Discover the warmth and humor of a live Gordon Bok concert and the deep connection he shares with his audiences.

The songs included are (as usual) from all over the place; about work, love, loss, the foibles of man and fish, and the love of the planet that feeds it all. Also included is a brand new “cantefable” (story-song) from Gordon's years of working on the water.

These are songs that come from tradition and songs that will become tradition. (2006)

Departure - The Mammals
CD
The Mammals' new album Departure shows the band moving towards a completely unique sound. The rocking energy of fiddles and banjos has been augmented with electric guitar, keyboards and a heavy rhythm section. The songs are political in tone yet completely accessible. Departure is a break through album for The Mammals. This is their third studio album. (2006)

Evolver - The Mammals
CD

Relax Your Mind - Jay Ungar & Molly Mason
CD
Relax Your Mind is a collection of country blues, waltzes, vintage jazz, western swing, two steps and Dixieland jams, recorded with their band Swingology. (2003)

The Lovers’ Waltz - Jay Ungar & Molly Mason
CD
Jay & Molly’s first, and most popular, duo album. It features “The Lovers’ Waltz” and other originals, plus Ungar & Mason renditions of traditional and swing classics. (1997)

Jukebox - Ruth Ungar
CD
On this solo CD, Jukebox, Ruth sings her way through contemporary originals and classics. Moody grooves that range from country and swing to modern pop. (2002)

Rock That Babe - The Mammals
CD
This Hudson Valley trio proudly adds 13 gems to their diverse repertoire. Rock your socks off tunes are balanced by gentler, lyrical tracks that ease you back into your porch swing. (2003)

What A Singing There Will Be - Helen Schneyer
CD
What a Singing There Will Be is the last recording of a legendary East Coast singer, Helen Schneyer. Recorded with friends and family the year before she passed away. Helen sings folk and gospel songs to an audience of all musicians. Helen said, “making a recording at a concert instead of a studio - was like a family gathering (except there was no food throwing).” (2003)

Songs for the Earth - a tribute to Rachel Carson
CD
This compilation CD of folk music inspired by Rachel Carson was produced by MUSE. This project features one song from 17 different musicians, including Pete Seeger, Gordon Bok, Tom Paxton, Cindy Kallet and Walkin' Jim Stoltz. (2009)
Apples in the Basket
CD
Here is Gordon’s latest album which is a collection of some of his most requested favorites including Apples in the Basket and Hills of Isle Au Haut. (2005)

Herrings in The Bay
CD/Cassette

Dear To Our Island
CD/Cassette
Traditional songs, songs from his favorite writers and a few poems set to music by Gordon makes this album one of his best. (2001)

In The Kind Land
CD/Cassette
Created from Gordon’s “church tapes”- recordings made at the Methodist Church in Camden, Maine. Songs of ledges and lullabies, river drives and revenge all carefully assembled. (1999)

Gatherings
CD/Cassette
This collection of traditional and contemporary music celebrates Maine musicians with The Quasimodal Chorus, The January Men, The Small World Orchestra and Carol Rohl. (1998)

North Wind’s Clearing
CD
Gordon’s songs of the Maine coast and the sea, and of those who earn their living upon it. This compilation from LP recordings includes “Peter Kagan & the Wind.” (1995)

A Rogue's Gallery of Songs for 12-String CD
Gordon's mastery of the 12-string guitar makes this album a treasure. Blending original songs with traditional, subtle with the rowdy. This is bound to be one of your favorites. (1983)

Return to the Land CD
Songs of the sea together with songs from Ireland to Australia, all wonderfully done on this solo album. (1990)

Another Land Made of Water CD/Cassette
This inspired poetic narration, with music and song, describes a magical and mysterious encounter with a group of sea-dwelling people. (1979)

Schooners CD/Cassette
A stirring musical tribute to all those splendid schooners that have helped shape Maine's coastal communities. (1972)

Jeremy Brown and Jeannie Teal CD

Ensemble CD
Gordon gathered together a group of highly talented friends (like The Quasimodal Chorus) to bring us this varied collection of songs and instrumentals. (1988)

Listen to samples from our CD's on Timberheadmusic.com
Harbors of Home
CD/Cassette
The inimitable harmonies of Bok, Muir & Trickett are a restful reassurance of what will last through time. This recording of great songs written by friends and other favorite composers coincides with the trio's 25th anniversary of working together. (1998)

Language of the Heart
CD/Cassette
The eighth recording by Bok, Muir, and Trickett in a collaboration of more than 20 years! (1994)

The First Fifteen Years Vol. I
The First Fifteen Years Vol II
CD (sold separately)
Drawn from earlier recordings, these two CD's are an excellent collection of the musical magic of Bok, Muir & Trickett. (1992)

This Way Home - Cindy Kallet
CD
Cindy Kallet has produced another incredibly beautiful album. Her clear sparkling voice carries these songs of heartbreak and warmth, tenderness and humor straight into our hearts. (2000)

Leave the Cake in the Mailbox
CD
This album won a Parents' Choice Award from the Parents' Choice Foundation in 2004. Mama Cindy - sharing her wisdom and humor about children and their parents, mothering and growing up. (2000)

Dreaming Down A Quiet Line
CD
Fifteen gorgeously crafted songs and every one a winner. From light-hearted to political, Cindy delivers. (1989)

And So Will We Yet
CD
This fine collection of songs is sure to delight all of the trio's many fans with its compelling harmonies and excellent instrumentals. (1990)

All Shall Be Well Again
CD
This 4th recording of “TBM,” presents their distinctly unique variety of tonality and style. (1983)

Turning Toward the Morning
CD/Cassette
This first album of Gordon Bok, Ann Mayo Muir and Ed Trickett includes the well loved title song. (1975)

Cindy Kallet 2
CD
Cindy Kallet’s second album of nearly all original pieces confirmed the impressions of her first one, “Excellent instrumentalist, and a voice that will give you the shivers.” - Gordon Bok (1983)

Working on Wings to Fly
CD
This first album captures the essence of a Cindy Kallet performance: gifted guitar-playing, a clear honest voice and wonderfully original songs. This album was selected by Boston’s WUMB listeners as one of the Top 100 Folk Albums of the Millennium. (1981)
Under the Sky
CD
Superb finger-style guitar player and instrumental song writer inspired by the likes of Leo Kottke, John Fahey, and Ed Gerhard. “Under the Sky is a big place... Doughty sets off into it with energy, focus and imagination in this lovely album of instrumental guitar pieces” -- Daily Hampshire Gazette (2001)

Among Trees
CD
Francis Doughty’s debut CD presents 13 original finger-style guitar instrumentals. These evocative instrumental songs are sweetly lyrical with changing rhythms and subtle syncopations; the harmonics sparkle like stars on a cold night. (1998)
